Michael and Patricia Todd filed a complaint against the City of Dillon alleging that the City knowingly operated unlicensed work camps to the detriment of the Plaintiff's licensed business.

The complaint was submitted to MMIA and coverage was denied. The city appealed the denial and in accordance with the MMIA Memorandum of Liability coverage the appeal was referred to a private attorney for an independent coverage review. The private attorney upheld the coverage denial and per the terms of the Memorandum of Liability coverage, the city has appealed that coverage denial to the MMIA Underwriting Committee.
